Global Finance Awards 2022 for UniCredit

Belgrade, XX.08.2022. – Global Finance has recognized UniCredit Bank Serbia as the best sub-custodian Bank in the country, for the ninth year in a row.

UniCredit Global Securities Services is proud to, also, announce that it has once again been recognized as the Best Sub-Custodian Bank in Central and Eastern Europe for 2022 by Global Finance - continuing a winning streak that now runs into its thirteenth consecutive year.

The bank received awards for being the best sub-custodian in six individual countries: Austria, Bulgaria, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Hungary, Serbia and Slovenia.

Bojan Čiča, Head of Global Transaction Banking Sector at UniCredit Bank Serbia, on this occasion, pointed out that this award is another confirmation that UniCredit is on the right track in developing its services and customer support. "We're really proud of the fact that we've been getting positive feedback from our clients this way for years. That is the essence of everything we do", said Čiča.

Jasmina Janković, Director of the Department for Custody Affairs and Depository Affairs, added that such awards provide a real incentive for continuous business improvement, because it means that the expertise and quality of services provided by UniCredit is appreciated and recognized.

Both the regional and individual market awards have been decided by Global Finance's editorial board, who took into consideration a significant number of inputs from expert sources and users of sub-custodian services as well as professionally prepared submissions from institutions that reliably provide top-notch services in their respective regions and markets. The recognition of our regional excellence for the thirteenth year in a row clearly underlines our strong commitment and focus throughout the Central and Eastern European region and reflects the high standards of expertise, dedication and service excellence provided by the entirety of the GSS staff.
